- Numbers: up to 15
- Asking for ages and answering the question:
  ¿Cuántos años tienes? – Tengo … años.
- In Spanish we ask people "How many years do you have?" and we say "I have … years"
- In the Spanish alphabet there is a letter that does not exist in the English one. It is called "eñe" and looks like and "n" with something on top.
- When "uno" comes before a noun, lose the "o" (tengo un año)

Intercultural Understanding

Christmas in Spain.

- The main religion in Spain is Catholicism. Many events in the celebration of Christmas are similar to England but there are some differences.
- Main days in Christmas in Spain:

8/12	La Inmmaculada The feast of the Immaculate Conception	This is a public holiday and a very important feast day in the Catholic Church, which marks the beginning of the Christmas religious celebrations in Spain.
22/12	La Lotería de Navidad The Christmas Lottery 	The Spanish lottery was started by King Carlos III in 1763 and Spain has been hooked ever since.
24/12	Nochebuena Christmas eve 	The most important family gathering of the year. Many children will receive their presents from Santa, the Olentzero or Tió de Nadal this evening, before going to bed!
25/12	Navidad Christmas
28/12	Día de los Santos Inocentes Holly Innocents Day 	The origin is the killing of babies ordered by Herod. But it has evolved into a fun day very similar to April Fool's Day in England.
31/12	Nochevieja New Year's Eve 	It is traditional to eat 12 grapes at midnight, one on each stroke of the clock to bring good luck for the New Year.
6/01	Día de Reyes The feast of Epiphany 	Los Reyes Magos, when the Three Kings arrived in Bethlehem. For Spanish children this is the most important day of the year when they wake up to find that Los Reyes Magos have left gifts for them .
