Artwork can provide important information about key historic events and how people lived.
The Bayeux Tapestry gives an account of the Norman invasion of England and the Battle of Hastings in 1066. The tapestry is wool embroidered on linen.
It is 70 metres long and 50 centimetres high.
No one is exactly sure who made it although most historians agree it was made in England in the 11th century.

Stickmen can be used to draw static and moving human forms and animals.

Colour and shades can be added to drawings using pencil crayons.
Lines and shading can be added for effect.
Detail can be draw with a thin black felt tip pen.
